Dear Parent/Caregiver

Your son/ward will be participating in our Community Access Program once per fortnight, Week B Fridays, all of 2024. This program is designed to support your son/ward in the development of real-life skills such as travelling on public transport, financial management, development of communication skills and much more. The locations will vary, not exceeding 40km from the school site. We will email you the day before to remind you of requirements for the excursion. We will always strive to keep costs as low as possible. Feel free to speak to me if there are any financial constraints or other questions.

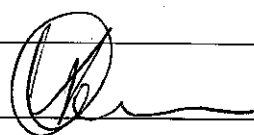

Date: Week B Friday 2024
